Attached

b. What steps does the applicant propose to take to provide assistance with or information about alternative forms of transport from the premises, for staff and patrons?

Prominent signs will display contact information for three different taxi services, and our staff are available to arrange taxi rides for guests when required. Nearby ride-sharing services like Uber are also accessible. We regularly advocate for secure and responsible transportation choices.

c. What other steps does the applicant propose to take aimed at promoting the responsible consumption of alcohol?

We will consistently adhere to a rigorous Host Responsibility policy, which will be visibly posted at the main service area. New team members will undergo thorough training and routine meetings will be held to ensure compliance and updates.

d. What steps does the applicant propose to take to ensure that the requirements of the Act in relation to the sale of alcohol to prohibited persons (i.e. minors, intoxicated persons, other persons to whom alcohol may not be sold pursuant to the licence) are observed?

Signs will be prominently displayed stating, "No ID, No Service, No Exceptions." Individuals under the age of 18 will not be served under any circumstances. Additionally, all staff will receive specialized training in assessing intoxication levels and verifying IDs for anyone who appears to be under the age of 25.

e. To what extent, where, and how is drinking water intended to be freely available to patrons? (i.e. explain whether water is bar service only, water jugs, or plumbed water stations (and locations)

Complimentary chilled water will be accessible at the counter, served in glass bottles for quality assurance. Signs advertising the availability of free water will be prominently displayed throughout the venue at all times.

f. What appropriate systems, staff and training does/will the applicant have in place to ensure compliance with the law?

New employees will be mandated to complete the HPA ServeWise training module as a part of their onboarding process. Additionally, training on our Host Responsibility Policy will be conducted during staff induction. Records of all such training will be meticulously maintained and stored in our On-License Toolkit for easy access and compliance verification.

g. What are the current and possible future noise levels and how does the applicant intend to mitigate them?

While noise has not historically been a concern at Quad Eatery we are committed to actively monitoring noise levels when we eventually reopen for evening hours. This ensures that we maintain a comfortable and enjoyable atmosphere for both our patrons and the surrounding community.

h. What are the current and possible future levels of nuisance and vandalism and how does the applicant intend to mitigate them?

The Arts Centre is highly efficient in promptly addressing any incidents of vandalism or damage, ensuring that the facility remains a welcoming and safe space for all visitors and members of the community.

i. What other licensed premises are there in the vicinity of this proposed premises? And, will the granting of this licence contribute to an increase in alcohol related problems in the area? (Explain)

Being situated within the Arts Centre, we anticipate that the granting of this license will not contribute to an increase in alcohol-related issues. Our commitment to a controlled environment, paired with rigorous adherence to Host Responsibility policies, serves to further minimize any associated risks. This approach aligns with the standards upheld by other reputable establishments in the vicinity, such as Cellar Door,

j. What is the land near the proposed premises being used for? Will the granting of a licence for your premises impact on changing neighbouring land use? If so, in what way?

Being located within the Arts Centre, the issuance of this license is not expected to escalate alcohol-related harm. The controlled environment and adherence to strict Host Responsibility policies further mitigate any risk, ensuring a safe and enjoyable experience for all patrons.
