9 Host Responsibility

a. Food will always be available. Its availability will be advertised by signage and its consumption will be encouraged by staff, so as to slow the onset of intoxication. A range of sodas, post-mix, non-alcoholic cocktails, tea and coffee will always be available. Tap water will be provided free of charge, either from the bar or from designated built-in water stations. A range of Low-alcohol and Zero-alcohol beers and ciders will always be available. Spirits will be served as singles where requested.

b. A telephone will always be available for patrons to call a taxi. Taxis will be promoted as a safe transport option. Signage will also be displayed behind the Bar to reflect this.

c. We will provide free post-mix drinks to designated drivers. Staff will be proactive in recommending food and non-alcoholic drinks. We will comply with regulations regarding discounting of drinks and the advertising thereof.

d. All staff will be trained to ask for identification, and will refuse service and communicate with management and security if in doubt as to age or intoxication.

e. Tap water will be provided free of charge, either from the bar or from designated built-in water stations, accessible without staff interaction.

f. Staff will undergo training as part of the induction process before commencing work in regards to their responsibilities under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012. This will be supplemented by regular refresher training sessions, as well as on-the-job training. There will be multiple qualified managers working on higher-risk shifts, such as Friday or Saturday evenings, so as to provide support for the Duty Manager and Security staff regarding compliance issues. The Duty Manager will always be a 'rostered extra', and will be free to roam the premises and ensure compliance, rather than being stuck behind the bar.

g. Noise levels will be monitored by the Duty Manager. Outdoor speakers are angled so as to minimise sound carrying.

h. Our management and security staff monitor the premises and the surrounding areas for vandalism, nuisance etc. and aim to prevent disorderly behaviour before it occurs/escalates. CCTV will monitor the interior and exterior of the premises to act as a deterrent.

i. There are several licensed premises in the immediate vicinity.

14. Important to note — Renewal with Variation Lodgement and Invoicing

Please make an appointment with an Alcohol Licensing Inspector to lodge your new renewal with variation before you make payment. The inspector will confirm your risk rating and fees and if required re-issue your invoice for payment of fees.

Renewal with Variations will not be accepted without an Inspector Verification being completed.

Lodgement notes – for office use only
