Dear Lloyds Scully

I am writing to withdraw my submission.

Having read thru recent reports, evidence, addenda and minutes I've concluded the hearing is being conducted on quite a high level. I feel confident my evidence in this context will be covered by Airbnb's all-encompassing submission and believe more weight will be given to our concerns when presented succinctly. I remain committed to our group's views on the invaluable contributions made by short-term accommodation to the local economy and to the health of our local communities. I sincerely hope CCC will recognise that our ability to continue making these contributions will be hamstrung by their proposed plan change.

Kind regards
Sasha Stollman

Dear Submitters,

After receiving the additional economic evidence and addendum to the s42A planner's report, the Panel has issued the attached Minute 9 – Expert witness conferencing for Proposed Plan Change 4: Short-term accommodation. This will be uploaded to the website this morning.

Kind regards,

Lloyds Scully
